Filene Players Are At It Again

The Filene Co-operative Association musical comedy, "The Caddy Girl," which held the town by the ears a few weeks ago, is going to make another bid for public favor, this time at the Selwyns, beginning Monday, July 7th. Repeated requests for a return engagement give promise of a big week.

STAGE AND SCREENCan You Sing? Here's Your Chance

Boston American readers who have singing voices and who would like an engagement to appear in the prologue of "Secrets", a Norma Talmadge picture coming to the Park, are invited to join a W N A C radio singing contest. The details are explained in a news story on this page.

It's Fine Weather

Wise folks are spending as much time as possible out of doors. Of course, it is much more pleasant to be out of doors at a Summer resort, or in the country. It's healthier, too.
You can afford this luxury if you choose your Summer home through the columns below.
